

I support RM-10352

With the frequency spectrum getting more crowded each day, it is necessary we use what we have more efficiently. In the digital modes, a great number of contacts can be made in the space it takes for one SSB, FM or AM contact.

I don't advocate doing away with these modes but I think by setting aside a small portion of the band for digital modes will better serve everyone.

Duane L. Mitchell
W9FZO